

Cleveland's Glorious African-American Past

2019 Heritage Series

Guest Speaker

Dr. Ronnie Dunn

*Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer
Cleveland State University*

Dr. Dunn, a researcher on urban and social policy, currently serves as an associate professor in CSU's Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs. He oversees efforts to enhance access, equity, and promote diversity among the CSU student body, faculty and staff. In addition, Dunn assists in expanding community partnerships and engagement across the region, while also promoting research and academic excellence in diversity management and policy.

Sow a Seed...  Watch us Grow!

Sharing Our Stories, Come...Learn...Enjoy!

Thursday, February 21, 2019

5:30 pm to 7:00 pm
East Cleveland Public Library
14101 Euclid Avenue

In celebration of Black History Month, The Association of African-American Cultural Gardens is launching this first in a series discussion to promote, educate and encourage interest in the African-American culture and heritage by perpetuating a spirit of friendship among people of all nationalities with a commitment to brotherhood/sisterhood and world peace.

Freewill Offering $5.20

To reserve a ticket visit:

www.aaacg.org or contact us at: 216-509-6427.

Help support our 2020 Campaign to complete development of and gain preservation funding for the Cultural Garden under construction on Martin Luther King Boulevard

