

After-School All-Stars Cleveland Behavior Support Intern

After-School All-Stars (ASAS) is one of the leading national after-school program providers in the country. Our comprehensive school-based programs combine activities and learning to help build the knowledge and skills children need to succeed, both in school and in life. Studies consistently show that students who participate in a service learning program have improved academic performance and positive behavior in school.

ASAS Cleveland is seeking a Social Work Intern to work directly with elementary and middle school students in an engaging after-school program. The Social Work Intern must be energetic, youth-focused, and passionate about providing high quality youth services to Cleveland youth. The successful candidate will be a self-starter with a great personality, passionate about serving youth in an educational setting, and the ability to build relationships with 1st – 8th grade students. The Social Work Intern's mission is to ensure that youth have a positive and healthy after-school experience, and are crucial to a successful after-school program. The Social Work Intern will work to expose ASAS students to new concepts in learning and help them develop a stronger sense of social responsibility and civic awareness.
