JOSEPH D. ROMAN
PRESIDENT AND CHIEF
EXECUTIVE OFFICER
GREATER CLEVELAND
PARTNERSHIP

As president and chief executive officer of the Greater Cleveland Partnership (GCP), one of the nation's largest metropolitan chambers of commerce, Joe Roman is helping to spur economic vitality in Northeast Ohio. GCP's advocacy efforts to build the most competitive environment for business investment in the Midwest focus on growth business creation, physical development, work force development and education, and business retention, expansion and attraction.

Mr. Roman previously served as executive director of Cleveland Tomorrow, which merged with the Greater Cleveland Growth Association and the Greater Cleveland Roundtable to form the GCP. During his tenure, Cleveland Tomorrow was recognized by the Harvard Business School as one of the most innovative and successful regional business organizations in the country, and was a leading player in rebuilding Cleveland's downtown.

Mr. Roman holds a bachelor's degree from the State University of New York and a master's degree in public administration from Harvard University. He sits on several boards, including the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, Partners for Livable Communities, the Ohio Business Development Coalition and Positively Cleveland.
