The Award

The "In Tribute to the Public Service" Award honors vision, dedication and accomplishment in public service. This year Levin College recognizes the community service of George Forbes whose dynamic leadership as Council President played a key role in making Cleveland a comeback city.

George Forbes joins the list of distinguished past "In Tribute" Award recipients: Representative Patrick Sweeney, Mayor Michael White; teachers Nona Burney, Linda Edwards, Jerome Crittendon; Governor George Voinovich; Anthony Celebrezze Jr. & Sr.; Steven Minter; Richard Kelso; and the first ever "In Tribute" Award recipient, Mercedes Cotner.

The Scholarship

Through the Cotner Scholarship, Levin College is nurturing a pool of talented students from which the next generation of leaders will emerge.

Since its inception in 1985, "In Tribute to the Public Service" has raised over $115,000 for the Mercedes Cotner Scholarship.
