AWARD & SCHOLARSHIP

The Award

The "In Tribute to the Public Service" Award honors vision, dedication, and accomplishment in public service. This year the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs recognizes two outstanding community leaders: Bishop Anthony M. Pilla and The Reverend Dr. Otis Moss, Jr. for their commitment and leadership to the greater Cleveland community.

The "In Tribute to the Public Service" Award was established in 1985 by the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs Visiting Committee to honor individuals who demonstrate exemplary leadership in public life and contribute significantly to the betterment of the community. The award program serves as a scholarship fundraiser to provide education opportunities for the next generation of public leaders from Cleveland's Martin Luther King, Jr. School for Law and Municipal Careers.

The Scholarship

Proceeds from "In Tribute" support the Mercedes Cotner Endowed Scholarship, a four-year scholarship to graduating students from the Martin Luther King, Jr. School for Law and Municipal Careers who will be attending the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs at Cleveland State University. Since its inception in 1985, "In Tribute" has raised over $570,000 in scholarship funds.

Through the Cotner Scholarship, Levin College is nurturing a pool of talented students from which the next generation of leaders will emerge. Your financial assistance will give a Cleveland student an opportunity to attend college and the chance to get ahead in life. Past recipients are working in the fields of economic development, nonprofit and education. Many have continued on to graduate school.

By supporting "In Tribute" you are helping to make higher education a reality for exceptional students of the Cleveland Municipal School System. Your support at one of the levels listed below is greatly appreciated. Gifts received by October 1st will be noted in the program.
