

Glenn S. Krassen teaches Oil and Gas Law. He is partner in charge of the Bricker & Eckler LLP Cleveland office and practices in the areas of oil and gas, energy, public utilities, and complex energy finance. Mr. Krassen has practiced oil and gas law for over 30 years in the Appalachian Basin. He has represented numerous property owners, landowner groups and companies in oil and gas leasing and development issues and in oil and gas transactions disputes and other matters.

Mr. Krassen regularly represents public and private entities nationally on complex energy aggregation, bond finance and electric and gas competitive procurement and contracting issues, and regularly appears in utility regulatory matters before the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio. He also represents municipalities, public agencies, public and private landowners, and others on municipal utility, electricity, gas, steam and chilled water, sewer and renewable energy issues.

Mr. Krassen is listed in Chambers USA (natural resources and environment) 2011-2013 and in Best Lawyers in America (energy law; natural resources law; oil and gas law) 2003-2013.