

Levin.
PUBLIC SERVICE. LEADERSHIP. CHANGE.

Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs
Levin Research Day | August 27, 2021
Agenda

1pm | PechaKucha Session #1

- Dr. Mark Salling, Senior Fellow and Research Associate - "Gerrymandering and GIS"
- Dr. Linda Francis, Professor - "Programming Affect as Memory"
- Dr. Bob Gleeson, Professor and Levin Chair - "The Effects of Working-From-Home on Municipal Wage Taxes in Ohio"
- Dr. Rob Pfaff, Visiting Assistant Professor - "Transportation Planning and Racial Segregation in the Motor City"

1:50pm | Traditional Paper Session

- Dr. BJ Fletcher, Visiting Assistant Professor - "Food Insecurity and an Economic Crisis"
- Dr. Bill Bowen, Professor - "An Evolutionary Systems Theoretic Perspective on Global Stewardship"
- Dr. Roby Simons, Professor and Faculty Chair, Mark Henning, Tom Hilde, Assistant Professor and Samuel Owusu-Agyemang, Graduate Student - "Implementing EZFare"

2:45pm | PechaKucha Session #2

- Dr. Iryna Lendel, Research Associate Professor and Center for Economic Development Director - "Center for Economic Development: Current and Future Research"
- Dr. Joanna Ganning, Associate Dean, Associate Professor, and MUPD Program Director - "Doctoral Education and Academic Job Market in Planning"
- Dr. Michelle Graff, Assistant Professor - "Does Need Align with Assistance?: An examination of Energy Insecurity and Energy Assistance in the United States"

3:35pm | Panel Discussion

- Dr. Roland V. Anglin, Dean and Professor
- Dr. Roby Simons, Professor and Faculty Chair
- Dr. Michelle Graff, Assistant Professor

4pm | Wrap-up