

LOCAL GOVERNMENT FELLOWSHIP

Call for applications

Two Levin College students will receive paid Public Management Academy project placements for the Spring 2021 semester, while participating in Center activities. Projects will support public agency initiatives in Northeast Ohio. Students will also participate in the Center's professional development activities. This is a paid, remote work opportunity for Spring 2021 (January - May).

Full-time undergraduate and graduate Levin College students in good academic standing are eligible to apply. Applicants must demonstrate an interest in local government. Students will be required to email an online application (resume, cover letter, & essay). After reviewing the application packages, the Center staff will select and interview a pool of finalists. Applications are due on Monday, November 30th.
